

Successful Revision

Starts with....

INDEPENDENT LEARNERS

The following are characteristics of a successful student.

Develop these in yourself

- Ask questions

- Discuss topics with your peers

- If you don't understand something, speak up

You are responsible for your own learning

'Ideas are funny things, they don't work unless you do'

REVISION TIMETABLE

Study sessions don't just happen when you feel like doing them.

They need to be scheduled on an organised timetable.

Your study timetable should rule your life.

NOW YOU NEED TO DO THE SAME FOR EASTER REVISION!

Preparing a Study Timetable

SOME TIPS

- Don't study after 11.00pm
- Divide time equally between subjects
- Put a copy somewhere to keep parents informed
- Revise your revision timetable - things change
- Stick to it !

“Well done is better than well said”

Active Learning not Passive Reading

- Record your plan of attack for each revision session
- Practise skills learned by doing problems, exercises and essays
- Aim to build a clear understanding by connecting areas of knowledge

' Some succeed because they are destined to:
most succeed because they are determined to.'

Prioritise Your Time

- To achieve your goals, sacrifices have to be made
- Avoid time wasting - make a list of the main distractions - pull yourself away
- Reward yourself for working well and achieving short term goals
- To perform at your best requires fulfilling and stimulating leisure/relaxation time
- You are responsible for the organisation of your time and lifestyle - don't blame others

EXAM PREPARATION

Test your knowledge and understanding

- Discuss it, explain it
- Justify it with friends
- Question each other

List any improvements needed

- Work through them systematically
- Retest your knowledge

Around the house, put up lists of

- Key facts, formulae, quotations, examples

Recite them aloud when you see them

Do past papers under exam conditions

- Identify areas of weakness and address them
- Become comfortable with the vocabulary used
- Perfect the pace you must work at - timing is critical
